We dedicate the 1972 Mesasa to you,
Mr. McCarter, because . . .

"The teacher If he is indeed wise
does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind."

"I left the woods for as good a reason as I went there. Perhaps it seemed to me that I had several more lives to live, and could not spare any more time for that one."

Henry David Thoreau

The Dream

When the white eagle of the North is flying overhead
The browns, reds and golds of autumn lie in gutter, dead.
Remember then, that summer birds with wings of fire flaying
Came to witness spring's new hope, born of leaves decaying.
Just as new life will come from death, love will come at leisure.
Love of love, love of life and giving without measure
Gives in return a wondrous yearn of a promise almost seen.
Live hand-in-hand and together we'll stand on the threshold of a dream.

DON'T SELL BUSINESS SHORT

You hear a lot of talk these days about the business world being a pretty dull, humdrum place. Some say it offers no really meaningful challenges. No opportunities for individual expression. Law, medicine or the Peace Corps perhaps. But not business.

Don't you believe it. American business today is a highly demanding institution. With plenty of room for personal contribution and growth. And if you feel strongly about man's social responsibility—business offers a unique opportunity for self-expression in this area, too.

Most likely you have further schooling ahead of you. But that day of decision on your long-term future is coming sooner than you realize. If when it arrives you've established a record of good grades and participation in extracurricular activities—think seriously about the rewards of a career in business—with us.

To the Seniors —

"To dream the impossible dream, To fight the unbeatable foe,
To bear with unbearable sorrow, To run where the brave dare not go.

To right the unrightable wrong, To love, pure and chaste, from afar, To try, when your arms are too weary, To reach the unreachable star!!

This is my Quest, to follow that star, No matter how hopeless, no matter how far, To fight for the right without question or pause, To be willing to march into hell for a heavenly cause!

And I know, if I'll only be true to this glorious quest, That my heart will lie peaceful and calm when I'm laid to my rest.

And the world will be better for this, That one man, scorned and covered with scars, Still strove, with his last ounce of courage,

To reach the unreachable stars!!"

To every thing there is a season,
and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

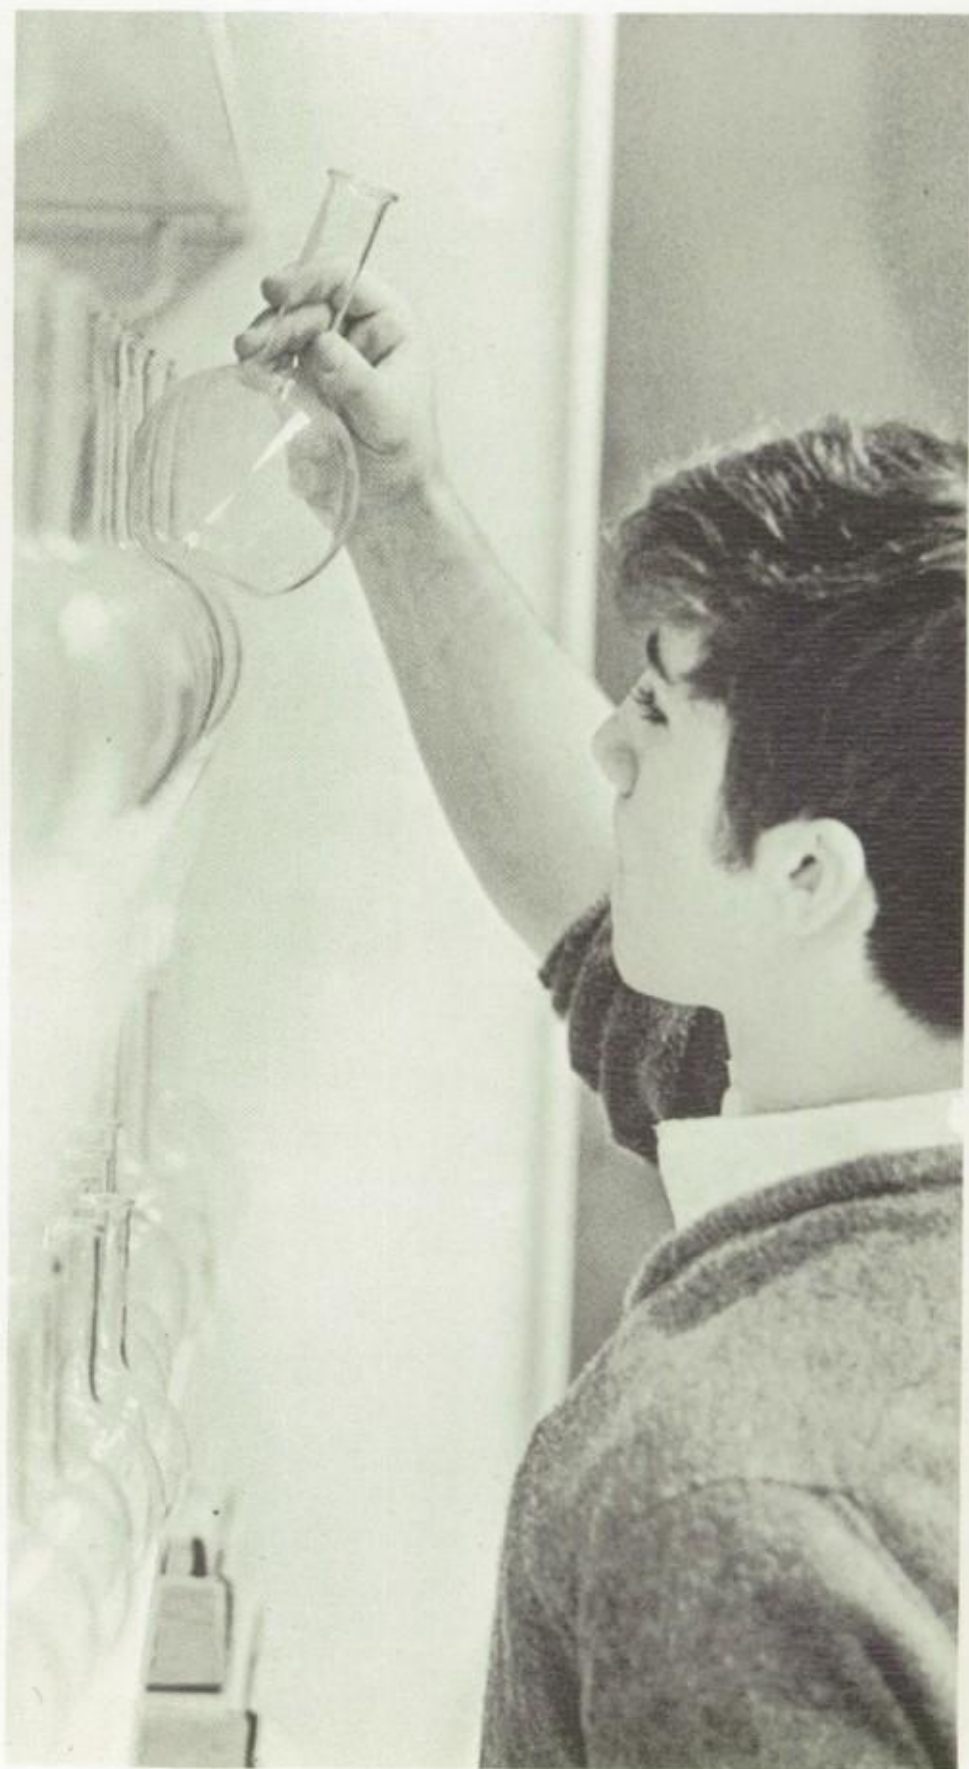

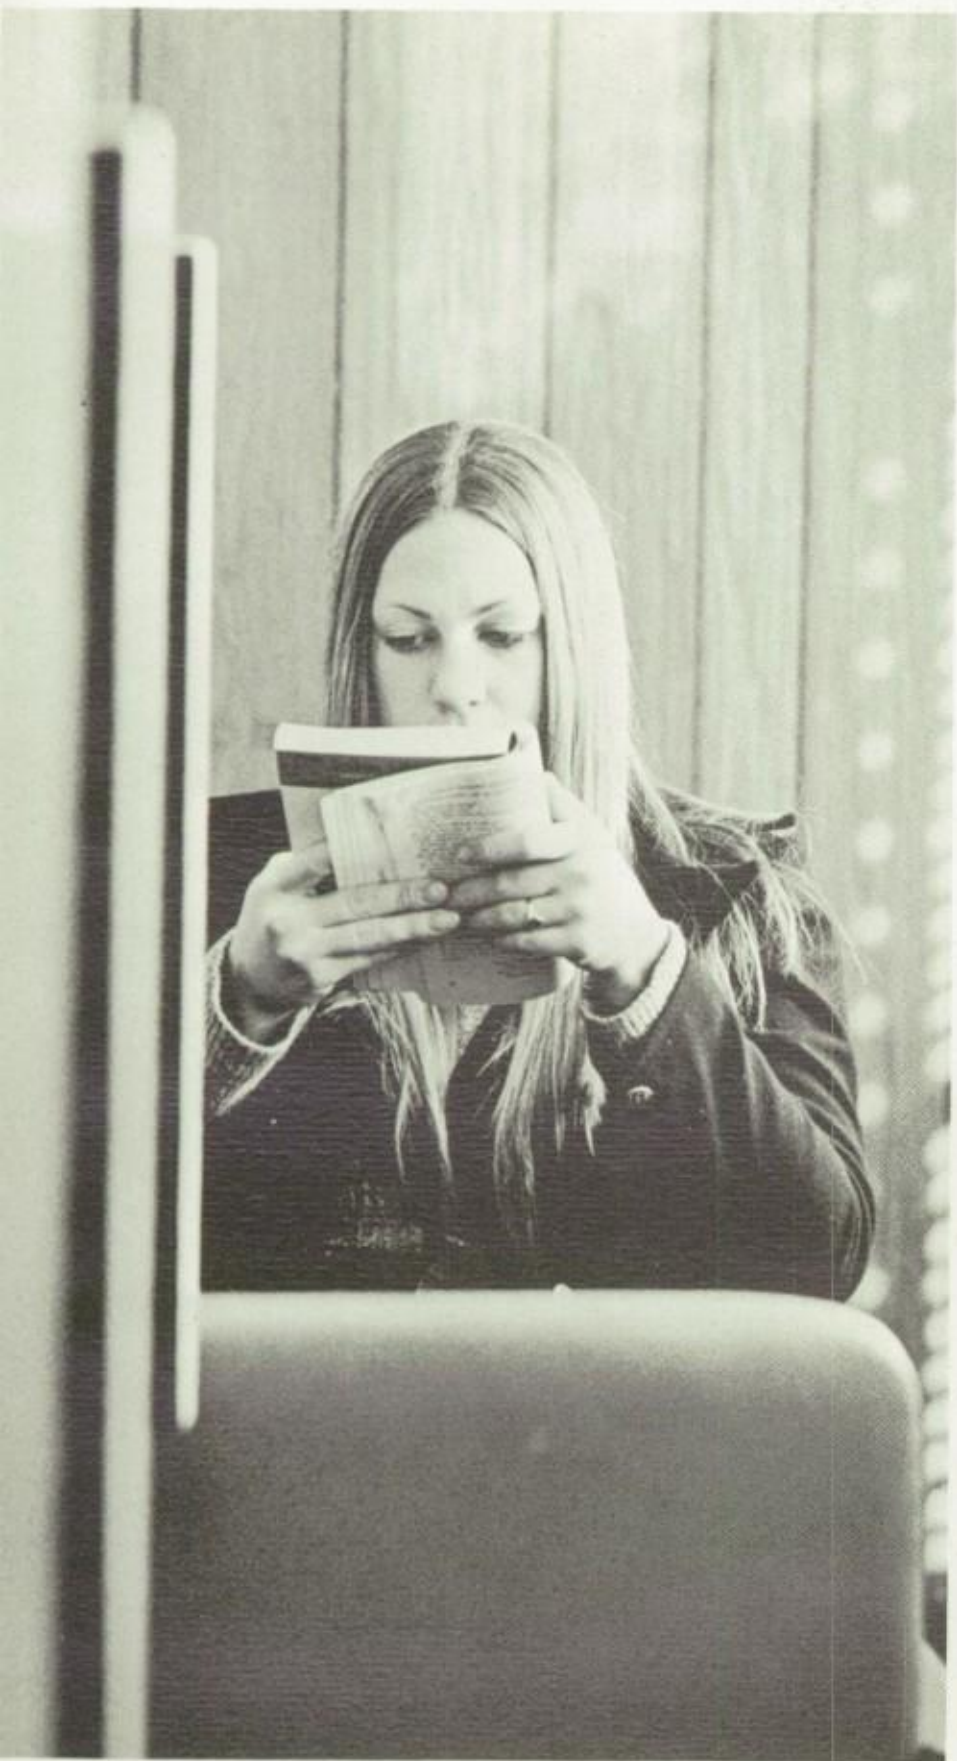

Thomas Reed Cranmer

“. . . and so there ain't nothing more to write about,
and I am rotten glad of it, because if I'd a knowed what a trouble it was to make a book I wouldn't a tackled it and I ain't agoing to no more. But I reckon I got to light out for the Territory ahead of the rest . . .”
